A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain in my back, which flattered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and bechase from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sleep a room without sitting down and resting, but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a good appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 130½. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians." Mrs. Harry Starr, Potomac, Pa., October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

For sale by all druggists.

TABLE DECORATIONS.

To Be As Fair They Must Have a Touch of Color.

Artistic Glasses Richly Enamelled in White and Gold—A Center Piece Which Is Really a Triumph in Fine Effect.

The fashionable dinner-table of today has a touch of color in its decoration. Cut glass for the moment has lost its popularity and an array of French and English glass flushed with color and wrought with glistening gold designs has taken its place.

If you wish to give a little dinner some day during this season select for the center-piece of your table a large, low bowl of green Bohemian glass, enameled with white and gold daisies. Fill the bowl with Marguerites and let it stand upon a round mirror-mat. Your center-piece will be a triumph in artistic effect. These bowls come not only in green but in shades of ruby and purple, and are enameled most exquisitely. Odd-shaped finger-bowls and punch cups in shapes to suit an art connoisseur are also made of this beautifully tinted Bohemian glass.

French glass and English art glass are less expensive and almost as beautiful in coloring and design. Green center pieces of French glass are shaped like a low basket. When filled with pink roses, with a rosebud or two turned about the handle, one has secured an excellent effect. These bowls may be bought for $4.50. Long, narrow English glass vases sell for $1.50 each. Filled with ferns they are eminently satisfactory as decorative bits for the table.

Many of the glass center pieces are quite complicated affairs. Sometimes they show an array of small slender vases clustered together or perhaps a deep bowl will be guarded by tall vases at either side. Loving cups in tinted glass are also used as a center decoration for the table. They are large and have handles of twisted gilt and white glass with enameled flowers growing upon their surface. Sometimes the enameled has a jeweled effect. These cups sell for $3.50.

When giving a color dinner the tinted glasses add much to the effect of the table. If green is the color desired the tint but the candelabra or single candlesticks may also be of green glass. The punch cups may rest upon curled leaves of green glass, and they may be in the shape of a half-opened blossom. The salad bowl and olive and radish dishes may be in green, and the finger bowls look like curled leaves held together with silver pins. When using the colored glass it is much more effective to have each piece rest upon a mirror mat.—N. Y. World.

Delicious Brown Bread Pudding.

One-half pint (or one cupful) of brown bread crumbs, fine and dry; one pint of cream or milk, three eggs (beaten separately), and two tablespoonfuls of maple sugar, or, instead, brown sugar and one tablespoonful of caramel. Soak the crumbs in one gill of milk fifteen minutes; make a custard of the remainder of the milk, eggs and sugar; pour it hot over the crumbs; beat the whites of two eggs with one tablespoonful of sugar and one or two tablespoonfuls of thick cream; stir lightly into the custard. Bake one-half hour in a moderate oven; eat with cream. Serve with cottage cream cheese.

An Enemy to Cholera.

So inimical to the cholera bacillus are oranges and lemons that if the bacteria be placed in contact with the cut surface of the fruits they survive but a few hours, and even if placed on the rind of the whole fruit they will not live longer than twenty-four hours. It is supposed to be the acid of the fruit that possesses this destructive power. Owing to this valuable property in these fruits no restrictions are placed on their transit and sale, even when it is known that they were grown in infected districts.

COWNS FOR SUMMER GIRLS.

The dainty costume on the right is of white Swiss muslin with a Marie Antoinette fichu of china silk or dimity. The hat is of dimity, shirred and trimmed with self bows. The two other figures represent back and front of the same dress, of thick ribbed crepon. The waist is draped with heavy Russian point lace. The front of the skirt is lifted over moire. The colors are dark blue and cream.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

Maud MacCarthy.

Miss Maud MacCarthy, the child violinist whose successful appearance at the Prince's hall we recently recorded, is not, as has been stated in several journals, an Australian, but was born 10 years ago in the Emerald Isle. Both her parents, too, are natives of Ireland, though her father has been practicing for some years past in Sydney as a medical man. He is also a skillful pianist and composer as well as a capable sculptor and painter in oils, and several of his productions upon exhibition have been rewarded with gold medals. Seeing that little Maud's mother is also an accomplished singer, it is not surprising that the child should have inherited an artistic temperament. Though Irish by birth, it was in Australia Miss MacCarthy commenced the study of the violin. She received lessons on that instrument as far back as five years ago from Miss Pedley of Sydney, and in two years' time had made such progress that her teacher felt justified in giving a special "at home" in order that connoisseurs might listen to the phenomenal capabilities of the gifted little child. She has since studied with the well known Spanish violinist, Senor Arbos, who, by the way, has just joined the teaching staff of the Royal Academy of Music, but from whom she will no doubt continue to receive the benefit of instruction. Among the treasures prized by Miss MacCarthy is a volume from Mr. Gladstone bearing an inscription in his own handwriting, and in which he describes the young violinist as "the dear little Irish musician."—London Queen.

Vacation Hints For Children.

If you will remember two little hints, children, you will have much less fear in going into the woods this summer. First, poison vines, such as the ivy, have three leaflets on one stalk. Therefore beware of touching any three leafed vine. Remember that the poisonous sumacs have white berries, those with red berries being harmless. It is safe for the city bred child never to eat any roots or berries found in the fields or woods without having them first looked over by somebody who knows about them. The second hint concerns snakes. Snakes which have circular markings—that is, streaked rings around the body—are harmless. Those which are striped lengthwise are dangerous. Should you ever go to Australia, don't stop to examine a snake, for all varieties are poisonous. It may interest you to know that snakes are so common in that country that one of the first lessons a child learns is how to bind up a wound. It is taught in the primary schools, and in all the railway stations large placards are posted giving full particulars and with good illustrations showing how the arm or foot should be bound to prevent the poison penetrating the system. We have not the worst country in the world, have we?—New York Times.

WORD HISTORY.

Copper first appeared in history on the island of Cyprus.

Pragmatic formerly had the significance of businesslike.

Mammoth comes to us from one of the Siberian dialects.

Topaz took its name from Topazas, an island in the Red sea.

Jungle, punch and toddy are words from the Hindostanee.

Cognac was first made at the French town of the same name.

Maps were first made on pieces of cloth like napkins. The Punic word for napkin is mappa.

Imp was once a title of honor. Spenser speaks of "ye titled imps that on Parnassus dwell."

Odalisque and about a dozen more are adopted into the English from the Turkish language.

Shrew was original the shrew mouse, an animal noted for her vigorous defense of her young.

Indigo is thus named from its being first exported from an Indian city of similar designation.

Tarantulas took their name from Taranto in Italy, where these venomous spiders are common.

Money owes its name to Moneta, a title of Juno, in whose temple Roman money was first coined.

Meddle once meant simply to attend to. Thesaurians of the Bible give 1 Thessalonians iv. 11, as, "Meddle with your own business."

Currant is properly Corinth. The currants of commerce have nothing in common with those of our gardens. Corinths are small grapes, cured in Greece and exported from Corinth.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Nose Out of Joint.

We've got a baby in our house, A perfect little fright. I think that is the reason It came so late at night. His eyes keep shutting all the time, His head is awful bare, And he makes so many faces It gives me quite a scare.

Mamma says he is beautiful, Her precious darling boy. Papa calls him his jewel bright, His life, his light, his joy. I used to have so many names I can't remember all. But since that red faced baby came I'm plain Samantha Hall.

Security.

A 5-year-old girl had been attending Sunday school for several weeks, learning weekly to repeat the golden texts. A few days ago her mother had occasion to administer a severe reproof, when the little one looked up undismayed and slowly and calmly observed: "The Lord is on my side. I will not fear."

It was her golden text of the Sunday previous.—Boston Herald.
